Privacy notice

Coveney Parish Council is the controller responsible for your personal data. We collect and process your personal data when you correspond with us or enter into a relationship with us (e.g. renting an allotment, carrying out voluntary work or sponsoring a tree).

Our website privacy policy contains more detailed information about our data processing (including about data security, data retention and lawful processing bases) and you should read that in conjunction with this privacy notice.

See – Privacy Policy – Coveney Parish Council

Alternatively, if you do not have access to the internet, you can ask us to send you a hard copy by contacting the Data Protection Officer below.

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you. This data may include identity data, contact data, financial data, transaction data, technical data, profile data, usage data and marketing and communications data. The categories of data and how we collect these are explained in our website privacy policy.

We will only use your personal data for the purpose for which we collected it, which includes to manage your relationship with us, and to improve our website, products or services.

We may share your personal data within Coveney Parish Council, and we may transfer, store and process your personal data outside the UK. More detail can be found in our website privacy policy.

For details of your rights under data protection laws, including the right to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office, the UK regulator for data protection issues (www.ico.org.uk), please see our website privacy policy.

If you have any questions about this privacy notice or our data protection practices, our contact details are:
